Construction and Facilities Management

ABOUT US

Hereka Group was founded in 2012 by Mpho Marima who hails from an entrepreneurial family background. Having grown up seeing what the family business was all about, he decided to branch out and start out on carving his path and future. The business started with basic installations and tiling and gradually progressed into a fully-fledged and thriving service provider in various industries.

We are mainly a Construction and facilities management service provider.

We draw on our extensive pool of specialist resources - civil, mechanical, process and engineers, alongside commissioning specialists, to deliver and test projects for our customers and partners.
